THURSDAY MAT. 19.

A non-partisan temperance state convention, having for its object the ousting of the republican party and the temperance people, is in session at Detroit.

It is said on very excellent authority that a mail will go one mile in fourteen days. This may seem like slow going, but it is a good deal faster than reform is travelling under the present administration.

This ticket is found in the New York Tribune:

For President:
General Rosecrans, of the Shenandoah Valley.
For Vice-President:
Captain Dawson, of "The Charleston News and Courier."

Platform:
General Sheridan must go and the Calhoun monument must shall be reserved.

Judging from the spring tone of the southern press, the foregoing ticket would do very well in the land of Calhounism.

Senator John C. Spooner is over in Europe. He was in England the other day talking to the big men of London. John says to a London editor: "My tariff views have not changed. England taxes those imports which she thinks need it, but admits free those to her advantage." Of course she does. England hasn't free trade by any means, but she wants the United States to take a dose of free trade medicine that she won't take herself.

Making platforms and writing editorials by the same democratic editor do not seem to come together in dove-tail fashion very well. Henry Watterson, of the Louisville Courier-Journal, wrote the Kentucky democratic platform. It commands everything the president has done, and condemns everything the president denounces. But in the Courier-Journal, Watterson whacks away at the president in a manner that makes the fury at every stroke of the editorial pencil. Editorially speaking, the "whiskey-rug mat" waits to wag the democratic dog."

Speaking about the democrats getting all the offices on the one side and the mugwump assertion that civil service reform is working beautifully both of which won't mix, an old Alabama farmer scratched his head and replied, "I ain't got no ill-will toward nobody; yet hang me if a United States building don't always seem to me to be their an' not ours." Because there were two or three old republican clerks left in the custom house at Mobile that the office might run without serious trouble he was led to believe that the building still belonged to the republicans.

Greeley men of 1852 who did not return to the republican party appear to make very good spoils democrats. Of such is James W. Hyatt, the new treasurer of the United. From such examples the mugwumps can see where they are going.—Chicago Journal.

Yes, and there is ex-Governor Readly, George W. Julian, Lyman Trumbull, and our own James R. Doolittle who either Greeleyized or Johnsonized, and what splendid democrats they do make! Their talk of reforming the democratic party brings to mind those beautiful and appropriate lines:

There was a young lady of Niger
Went to ride on a tiger;
They came back from the ride
With the lady inside,
And a smile on the face of the tiger.

Mr. Blaine has decided to go to Europe. This is a good thing for Mr. Blaine, and it will prove a splendid thing for the public men of London, to whom he will pay his respects. He will visit the houses of parliament, and we hope he will be invited to address the house of commons, and if the commoners shall so fortunate as to hear him, they will not only have the pleasure of hearing the best informed man of the time, but they will also have the exceeding pleasure of learning from Mr. Blaine more about themselves and their country than they ever heard fall from the lips of an English orator. It will certainly be especially interesting and profitable to the commoners to become acquainted with the prince of parliamentarians and grand republican leader.

The democratic papers have discovered a remarkable coincidence in the fact that shortly after Mr. Blaine had an interview with Mayor Roche, the latter appointed that stalwart Irishman and ardent republican, John F. Finnerty to a lucrative office. This is startling, of course, but it does not convict Mr. Blaine of committing a crime any more than Mr. Cleveland was shown to be guilty when some twits made their appearance in a family of western New York, whose maternal head had visited the executive mansion in Washington just nine months before. Reasoning from effect back to the natural cause, it would seem that in these two instances Blaine and Cleveland were equally guilty.

The question of immigration is one which is attracting considerable attention from the fact that nearly all the labor agitators in this country, and all the rioters, are foreigners; and that the more of the off-scourings of Europe are dumped on our shores, the more perplexing and serious the labor question becomes. From 1873 to the present time 5,491,610 immigrants have come into the United States. Of these England, Scotland, and Wales have furnished 690,629 and Ireland 708,750, making a total of 1,405,379 from Great Britain. Germany has sent 1,430,922. These constitute more than half of the total immigration for the past fifteen years. Those who come here to make farmers, become useful citizens, but those who rush to the cities and endeavor to obtain a living without work, whose chief places of resort are the saloons, are the ones who become labor agitators and the leaders in riots in the large cities. There is almost a general panic among the laborers.

London, May 10.—Col. J. G. Ruff has applied for an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company to prevent the issue of bonds into which the guarantees obligations of the company are to be funded, and asks to have the extra issue of $1,200,000 of new stock, which was ordered at the special meeting of the stockholders to take up dividend scrip, declared illegal.

Lubbock, Tex., May 10.—Colonel J. G. Ruff has applied for an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company to prevent the issue of bonds into which the guarantees obligations of the company are to be funded, and asks to have the extra issue of $1,200,000 of dend scrip, declared illegal.

United Conference at Chicago.

Chicago, May 10.—The thirty-third annual session of the Western Unitarian conference was opened Wednesday morning at All Saints' church, on Oakwood boulevard. About sixty societies were represented by delegations.

Careful attention to the diet is the best guard against disease. It is a fact that all individuals that over-eat do not only corrupt the blood but destroys nerve force, and induces dyspepsia, jaundice, bad breath, piles, pimples, and liver troubles. Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic quickly cures the above diseases. Can be taken by the most delicate. Price fifty cents. Sold by Prentiss & Evanson.

FOURTH OF JULY.

Public Meeting at the Council Chamber on Monday Evening.

There will be a public meeting held at the common council chamber on Monday evening, next, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of making arrangements for a proper celebration of the Fourth of July. Let all patriotic citizens attend, and start the arrangements with a boom.

MANY CITIZENS.

BRIEFLETS.

—Shall we celebrate the Fourth of July?

—Miss Emma Stoddard is now the lady cashier at Christian's O. O. D. store.

Garrison is in mourning because of the loss of his gold bowied spectacles.

Beloit is using naughty language because of the changes on the Northwestern road.

Professor Layton expects to entertain a few invited friends at his studio next Tuesday evening.

—J. A. Denison's new soda fountain isn't an artesian well but it flows just the same and the flow has a very agreeable taste.

—Thomas Gray, Jr., of Magnolia, Rock county, fell dead of heart disease in a saloon in Brodhead. He was a single man about 34 years old.

The Mawry benefit dance at the Ritter's armory last evening, was attended by a goodly number of young people, and all enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

—In the list of donors to the new bridge recently published in the Gazette the name of Gazelesch & Knipp was the name of Gazelesch & Knipp was omitted. This firm gave $10 to the enterprise.

—Rumors of an elopement have been floating about the street within a few days past. Friends of those whose names were mentioned pronounce the report untrue.

—M. S. Prichard has been elected by Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F. as representative at the meeting of the grand lodge which meets in Madison next month.

—Alderman Horr, Ed. Ehrlinger, George Ardis and several other sportsmen are organizing a gun club in opposition to the Angloworm. Some heavy shooting matches may be looked for.

—Rockford Gazette—it is whispered hereabouts that Prof. Torrens and a young lady in Janesville may wed in the near future. So the professor is going to give Rockford girls the slip, eh?

—Ex-Sheriff Hanthorn begins to look like a horny handed son of toil. Between taking care of a soap factory, running a farm and keeping the market supplied with fish stories he has very little spare time.

—L. D. Robinson writes back from Los Angeles, "We are now living in a little cottage covered with roses and don't want to move in a hundred years." The letter reads "L. D. Robinson, dealer in fancy and staple groceries."

—Prospect street, in the second ward, might be greatly improved by the planting of shade trees, especially that portion of the street lying between the summit of the hill and the bridge. It would only require a small outlay by each property owner.

—The Rev. T. De Witt Pease, pastor of the Court Street M. E. church, who has been confined to his home for the past three or four weeks with an attack of malarial fever, is now able to be out, and will resume his pastoral duties next Sunday, preaching morning and evening.

—Monday evening, May 23d, the Young Ladies' Guild of Trinity church will give a Souvenir soiree at the residence of Horace McElroy Esq. A very pleasing programme consisting of recitations and vocal and instrumental music has been prepared. Ice cream and cake will be served. All friends of the parish are cordially invited to be present.

—Non-commissioned officers appointed for Kilpatrick Camp, Sons of Veterans were as follows: Chaplain, J. L. Hay; 1st sergeant, O. E. Green; quartermaster sergeant, E. P. Hayward; sergeant of the guard, Walter H. Scott; color sergeant, Charles H. Stone; corporal of the guard, Herbert Palmer; camp guard, William Delaney, and fife guard Fred Young.

—The advisability of building a sewer in West Milwaukee street previous to paving that street, being discussed by the property owners interested. Many are of the opinion that the common council should order the sewer constructed at the same time the water pipe is laid; that all connections should be completed with buildings on both sides of the street. It is said that the gas company intend to lay new gas pipes in that street before the pavement is put down. This being a fact, the sewer at this time—making all connections—would avoid the tearing up of the pavement for such purpose. We understand this question will be presented to the council at its next meeting.

—Last evening's rehearsal of "Ester" was not exactly in costume. "Iuuen" and "Mordeai" glared at each other with becoming fierceness, but when it came to looking in the slightest degree Oriental, they couldn't do it. The chorus of grief-stricken Israelites peered down on every one else from the heights of genuine duds dollars. As for the haughty Persian courtesies, their pompadours bristled just as aggressively, as though the westerns were everyday Americans. There is no doubt, however, that the performance this evening will surprise even the most sanguine. There is not a poor voice in the cast, and the choruses have been trained to a high standard of excellence.

—The weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 63 degrees above zero, though the westerns were everyday Americans. There is no doubt, however, that the performance this evening will surprise even the most sanguine. There is not a poor voice in the cast, and the choruses have been trained to a high standard of excellence.

—Keep Your System in Good Tone.

Broadhurst's Pills cure inflammatory and chronic rheumatism, gout, bilious, remittent and intermittent fevers, diseases of the blood, liver, kidneys, spleen, etc. They stimulate the system and circulate the circulation, and give tone to the entire system. By taking two or three pills every day, you will be enabled to throw off all impurities. Take one or two pills every night for two weeks.

—Mrs. F. J. Hellings is in Chicago on a short visit.

—B. B. Eldredge went to Milwaukee to-day on legal business.

—Conductor Neal Mahoney is home from New Orleans—where he has been in attendance at the national convention of Railway Conductors.

—O. H. Fethers, Esq., has gone to Milwaukee, to attend the banquet of the Milwaukee merchants at the Plankinton house this evening. He will respond to the toast: "The Merchants of the World, Their Duty to the Nation in Politics and Morals."

—Many of the good things of this life are sorrowfully let alone on account of Dyspepsia. Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Constipation; sold on a positive guarantee at 25 and 50 cents, by Prentiss & Evanson, O. P. O.

—Shall We Celebrate the National Holiday in Janesville?

A Public Meeting to be Held at the Council Chamber on Monday Evening.

The opinion prevails among many of our leading citizens that Janesville should make arrangements for a first class celebration of the Fourth of July, several gentlemen having already canvassed the question among the businesses in portions of the city. It has been decided to call a public meeting at the council chamber on Monday evening, May 23d, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of making the preliminary arrangements for such a celebration. It is hoped that there will be a full attendance of all those who desire to see the day properly observed. Arrangements are in progress for celebrations in many of the cities in the state, and it is the wish of the people that a celebration be held in Janesville, they should attend this meeting and give it a boom. There is no time to lose. A considerable sum of money has already been subscribed for a celebration.

STATE FISH COMMISSIONERS.

The state fish commissioners have just closed a special session here. Superintendent Nevins submitted plans for improvements to the hatchery at Fitchburg, which the commissioners authorized him to carry out to completion. The contemplated improvements involve an expenditure of several thousand dollars. The Milwaukee branch will not be removed, if the expense of maintaining it can be materially reduced, the great cost at which it is maintained being the principal ground for removal. President Dunnigan and Colvert Spensley were authorized to confer with the Milwaukee authorities in regard to the matter.

—The Mawry benefit dance at the Ritter's armory last evening, was attended by a goodly number of young people, and all enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

—In the list of donors to the new bridge recently published in the Gazette the name of Gazelesch & Knipp was the name of Gazelesch & Knipp was omitted. This firm gave $10 to the enterprise.
